that every home-lover would appreciate, as it is both artistic and useful.

Mahogany & Oak Electric Lamps

We are showing something decidedly new in Piano, Banquet, Table and Domes, constructed of rich mahogany, quartered oak, with art glass and silk shades.

The designs are on classical lines, and the figures and bust are carved from solid wood-making pieces, that have true value and merit beyond the usual cast and plated bases.

The effect produced by harmonizing the design and finish of furniture and trim of a home with illuminating devices is novel, producing an interior that is soft, rich and pleasing.

FOUNDER'S DAY

decorated with the lilies of the valley and other flowers, was staked a "tabu" stick, symbolic of the royalty of the Alii, who made it possible for the succeeding generation of his own race, the Kamehamehas.

The trustees and the entire faculty of the schools were present.

But few of the old students were present. Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, who usually attends these exercises was not there. It was reported this morning that she was not well enough to leave home.

Tomorrow night, the Kamehamehas will hear Chas. A. Cottrill, collector of internal revenue. He will speak at a luncheon to be given at seven o'clock in the dining room of the manual department. His subject will be "Privileges and enjoyments of an academic education." It is expected that a large delegation of the old students will be there to hear him.

Many Present

Among those present at the mausoleum this morning, beside President Horne of the schools and the faculty, were Hon. W. O. Smith, and Hon. A. F. Judd, of the board of trustees; Rev. Wm. B. Oleson, pioneer principal; Theodore Richards, Joseph Emerson, Rev. Akaike Akana, Rev. Henry Poepoe, G. K. Poepoe, Hon. Fred. K. Beckley, Mrs. C. S. Halloway, Mrs. L. Auld, Miss Lucy Peabody, Mrs. Hendrick and several of the older students of the three schools. The attendance this year, however, was not as large as that of last year.

Proof To Many.

Twenty-five years ago today, the Kamehameha Schools were founded under the express will of the late Princess Bernice Pauahi Bishop, the founder, in whose memory all sons and daughters of Kamehameha held appropriate exercises over her grave at Nuuanu this morning. The dedication of the senior cottage of the Girls' School will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

All the Kamehamehas, old and young, promptly at 3 o'clock tomorrow evening, will be guests of President Perley Horne at a Hawaiian luncheon, which is being prepared by the students of the manual department. And on Sunday, Rev. Akaike Akana, class of 1903, will deliver an address from the pulpit of the school chapel. It is expected that an unusually large assemblage of the old students will attend.

Old Students Coming.

A number of the island Kamehame-has come in from Kauai today to attend the celebration. Tomorrow morning, the students from Hawaii will arrive in the Kilauea. C. E. King, class of 1891, accompanied by a delegation of the "Kona nightingales," all Kamehamehas, will also be passengers in the Kona-Kau liner. It is expected that they will sing the latest Hawaiian music, which never before has been sung in public.

According to the faculty of the schools, the boys, during their Christmas vacation which began today will conduct military camps, fight sham battles and carry out regular campaigns on a small scale, under the direction of Lieutenant Turner, military instructor of the schools. They will begin their school year again January 2.

The program as arranged for the celebration of the Founder's Day of the Kamehameha Schools, follows:

Mausoleum exercises—This morning at ten o'clock.

Dedication of senior cottage, school for girls—This afternoon at four o'clock.

Chapel Service—Sunday, December 22, 11 a. m.

Rev. Akaike Akana, class of 1903, will deliver the Sunday address.

After the dedication of the senior cottage, the building will be open for inspection.

Athletic contests will be held today and tomorrow afternoon.

At the luncheon, only former members of Kamehameha, with wife or husband, are invited. No children.

Today's program at the Mausoleum at 10 a. m. is as follows:

Song—"He Inoa No Pauahi," by all.

Decorations of Mrs. Bishop's grave by students, in charge of Miss Burger.

Brief ritual service by K. G. S.

Brief ritual service by K. B. S. M.

Girls' School call—K. G. S.

The public are cordially invited. All former students are urged to come to honor to the memory of the loved Alii.

and their views of the best method of meeting the present financial obligations of the Territory occasioned by the wharf system of the Territory, and for properly covering and protecting the large expenditures of public funds that will be necessary to use in the immediate future to provide for the development of the commerce of the Territory.

As yet, however, no estimate has been made of the running expense of the territorial wharves, affording a definite basis from which the rate of taxation might be figured. The figures at present compiled show merely the total cost of the various piers, with the revenue derived from those in Honolulu during the year from October 1, 1911, to September 30, 1912.

The total cost of all the territorial wharves, in Honolulu and elsewhere, is $1,397,001.59. The total revenue derived during the past year by the territory from them was $44,691.18, all coming from those in Honolulu. The cost of the wharves on the other islands is $149,300, and of those in Honolulu, $1,247,701.59.

to walk the streets to keep warm, as there is no tentage to spare here.

Major E. J. Timberlake, commanding the artillery district, is not inclined to accept the newspaper statement as authentic, believing that he would have been informed of any such orders. Officers at department headquarters, however, credit the news, and are busy figuring out the disposition of the companies. This morning Adjutant General Campbell took the matter up with Chief Quartermaster Cheatham, and the latter will probably cable to division headquarters regarding tentage.

The officers who will come with the 10th company are Captain Staton, Lieutenant O'Hara and Lieutenant Harrison. Captain Wm. H. Peck has been assigned to the 68th within the last few weeks, the other officers of the company, according to the last army directory, being Lieutenants Pepin and Barry. The 10th company has been at Fort Barry, and the 68th at Fort Winfield Scott, both on San Francisco bay. Neither is a mine company, however, which eliminates Fort Armstrong as a permanent station for either.

BOARD WRESTLES WITH SCHOOL MONIES

With Treasurer Conkling present to explain the intent of the framers of the new tax law, and Acting Attorney General A. C. Smith in attendance to figure out the nice legal points involved, the Territorial board of school estimates met in the Senate chamber this morning and held a discussion that proved highly interesting to the members themselves but would have been as highly exciting to the average citizen.

The new tax and school laws were explained in detail and that portion of the new biennial school budget recently prepared by the school commission, which may be revised by the board of estimates, was worked out carefully, only one or two revisions being made at the morning session, however. Further changes may be made this afternoon, and the board may conclude the extremely technical job today.

Does janitors' services, as provided for in the new budget, mean merely "service," or does it include the janitors' supplies? This is an important item in the budget, and the question proved a tartar to the members of the newly-organized board. It was, however, only one of a number of similar problems the members were called upon to solve, and which they eventually were compelled to refer to the attorney general for a legal opinion. If janitors' supplies are not included, by law, under the head of janitors' service, should it come under the head of maintenance, or school supplies? Should it be under the general or the special fund? If it is under the one, the Territory must pay for the janitors' supplies, and will materially affect the tax rate; if under the other the counties must pay for it.

D. L. Conkling appeared before the board today as chairman of the school committee of the Kalihl Improvement Club and persuaded the board to insert an appropriation of $3200 for the erection of a four-room bungalow school for the Kalihwaene school. His request was for an appropriation of $70,000 for a fourteen-room building, but the board ruthlessly pared it down to the much smaller figure. Mott-Smith is chairman of the board.

JEWELS GLEAM AMID FLOWERS

"I like your beautiful shop and your jewels are wonderful, but the most wonderful thing to me is the flowers," is the remark that a visitor at Wall & Dougherty's made one night this week. It was early in the evening and the big shop on Bishop street was filled with Christmas buyers. And all around, in among the gleaming showcases, high on the wall-stands and in and around the handsome furnishings of this new jewelry store were masses and masses of flowers and not cut flowers, but flowers in pots. The scarlet poinsettia, was particularly in evidence. Some of the visitors spent almost as much time admiring the flowers as the jewelry, cut-glass or other ware.

"This Christmas season is a splendid one for us," said Arthur P. Wall, commenting on the prevailing spirit of good cheer and happiness in buying that seems typical of the brightly-lighted shop. "We have, as you know, been in business but a short time and our opening stock was very large, so that with what we ordered especially for the holiday season, we have carried an unusually large line of goods that appeal to the holiday shopper. Yet the demand has been great. The Christmas season in Honolulu has certainly been something for the merchants to wonder at. There is of course, always a demand for jewels at Christmas. We find also that such pretty, delicate and tasteful gifts as gold and silver mesh bags, platinum wrist watches and the like are very popular. There is a large demand for leather goods this year, and we are glad to say that our line is not to be surpassed.

"Many people like the idea of giving a watch for Christmas. The Hamilton watch, in which we specialize, is exceedingly popular, and we carry several other high-grade watches also.

"One indication of the trade we have been doing is the fact that our engravers are simply overwhelmed with work. I thought that one engraver could do the work, but the season opened up so briskly that I had to secure another."

Typical of the taste and aptness that characterize the offerings of this shop is the finely engraved Christmas greeting that the firm is sending out. And here is the appropriate sentiment within:

"Her emerald sea, her turquoise sky. Her opal rainbow arched on high. Her 'liquid sunshine,' diamonds rare. Are priceless to Hawaii fair. These pearls of thought we scatter wide.

To give out joy for Christmastide."

and that I gave an opinion as to its validity. The report also intimates, and I have learned from other sources that Mr. Magoon also claims that he "knocked out" the old plumbing ordinance in the supreme court of the territory. Mr. Magoon made these statements during my absence from the board and they were not repeated at the time I was in attendance on the board yesterday, so that I had no opportunity to state the facts. For the information of the board I will state that the old plumbing ordinance was not drawn by me or by any one in this department, and was never referred by the board to me or to any one in this department for an opinion as to its validity. Although the ordinance was hurriedly passed by the board to meet what was considered an emergency, it is remarkably free from defects and has never been "knocked out."

While having due regard for Mr. Magoon's legal ability, I fail to understand why he repeatedly announces that the ordinance has been declared invalid by the court. The only attack ever made on the ordinance was made by Mr. Magoon in the case of Territory vs. Furulayashi. That case was decided by the supreme court of the Territory on the 26th day of June, 1911. The decision did not declare the ordinance invalid. It did not even make a dent in it, and since that time the plumbing ordinance has been in full operation. Under the decision, a small portion of the ordinance covering mere matters of convenience and not essential in any manner to its operation, were held to be without effect. So little bearing did this attack on the ordinance have upon the material and vital portions of it, that I advised the board that it was not even necessary to amend the ordinance. Mr. Magoon may of course feel proud of this "victory," but it hardly calls for continuous self-laudation.

As so much prominence was given to this matter in the morning paper, I have taken the liberty of furnishing a copy of this statement in advance to the board, and to the Star-Bulletin for publication. Very truly yours, FRED W. MILVERTON, First Deputy City and County Attorney.

JAPANESE GAMBLERS CAUGHT BY KELLET

A half dozen Japanese were caught by Deputy Kellett and a squad of secret service men last evening and when arraigned at District court this morning were assessed fines ranging from five to nine dollars with the costs of prosecution added thereto.

The raid was made at a time when it was believed that a large delegation of orientals would be present. The officers appeared a trifle too early upon the scene with a result that the bigger portion of the fraternity who might have over the boards where money is won or lost, were tipped off in time to beat a retreat.

At the conference of the National Unionist association in London, Lord Lansdowne was chosen to make the announcements regarding the party policy, which makes him the acknowledged head of the party in place of Bonar Law.

It is believed that the renewal of the Dreibrund, six months before its expiration, has reference to the Hawaiian situation.
